

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee oversees the affairs of the organization, making decisions on behalf of the Board between full board meetings and serves as a liaison between the Board and the Chief Executive Officer. The CNSF President, three Vice-Presidents, and Chief Executive Officer (ex officio) serve on the Executive Committee.

John Stewart, President -- CNSF
J. Max Findlay, Vice-President -- CNSF
Jeanne Teitelbaum, Vice-President -- CNSF
Garth Bray, Vice-President -- CNSF
Dan Morin, Chief Executive Officer

Governance Committee

The Governance Committee is responsible for making recommendations to the CNSF Board of Directors concerning leadership succession, nominations to Board committees, governance processes, orientation of new Board members, promotion and evaluation of Board effectiveness, and periodic review of bylaws and policies. This Committee is made up of the Presidents of the four Societies and the President of CNSF Board of Directors; the Chief Executive Officer is non-voting.

John Stewart, President CNSF
Sharon Whiting, President CACN
Seyed Mirsattari, President CSCN
Chris Wallace, President CNSS
Sarah Kirby, President CNS
Dan Morin, Chief Executive Officer

Audit Committee

The Audit Committee is concerned with the financial integrity of the CNSF. It oversees the accounting practices, financial reporting and the external audit of the organization. The Audit Committee is comprised of one member delegate, usually a Vice President, from each member Society.

Jason Barton, CNS
Brian Toyota, CNSS
Kristine Chapman, CSCN
Narayan Prasad, CACN